CONGRATULATIONS!

The following students are participants of The Sunflower County Freedom Project. Each year the Project publishes a small literary journal that showcases local students' art—short stories, artwork, and poetry. This year, over 100 students made a submission, but only 45 submissions were chosen by a student editorial board. Moorhead Middle School is one of the few schools with over 5 submissions chosen. The winners are as follows as depicted in the picture below:

- Marquavious Evon (8th Grade): "OMG (Oh My Gosh)"
- Chante Ray (8th Grade): "Chained and Sinned"
- Meqkylih Smith (8th Grade): "Mixed Emotions"
- DeAsia Thorton (7th Grade): "This Dark World"
- Lazariah Cartridge (8th Grade): "Why"
- Darrin Carpenter (8th Grade): "That One Boy" & "United States"

A release party will be held by the Project in Greenwood in honor of all the winners. We are very proud of our students. Again, congratulations!
