Credit by Demonstrated Mastery (CDM)
Recommendations for CDM Family Process

RANDOLPH County School System

Application to demonstrate Credit by Demonstrated Mastery
http://www.randolph.k12.nc.us/Pages/CreditbyDemonstratedMastery.aspx

↓

School counseling
(Contact your child's school counselor.)

↓

Phase I Assessment of foundational understanding https://www.randolph.k12.nc.us/Pages/CreditbyDemonstratedMastery.aspx

↓

Student and family notification of results from Phase I

↓

Student does not qualify for Credit by Demonstrated Mastery based on Phase I results

STOP

Move on to Phase II-Performance based task

↓

Content specific panel review of performance based task

↓

School/Regional/District Student CDM Review Panel evaluates Phase I and Phase II Assessments of foundational knowledge and deeper understanding of content to determine qualification

↓

Student and family notification of panel's recommendation

↓

Yes. Student qualifies for earning CDM. Course and credit will be noted on student transcript with appropriate placement for the following term.

No. Student does not qualify for CDM. Family notified of grievance process for families.