A UNIVERSE OF STORIES

As easy as 1, 2, 3!

1. Read Books
2. Take raffle tickets to the public library and bring this log when you go back to school
3. Get prizes!

Write the title of the books you read and take this log when you go back to school in August. Next, fill out a raffle ticket for each book you read, and drop them at the public library off over the summer to win prizes. There's no limit to how many raffle tickets you can submit! Don't forget to check out the public library's website for fun events, how to download books from anywhere, and more ways to win prizes:
