GENERAL

- Reminder, Student Senate meeting Tuesday, December 4th, during 5th period, at Ethel Pope auditorium. Voice your concerns or opinions!
- Attention Seniors! You have only a few weeks left to turn in your senior portrait. All the information is in the packet you received at your first senior meeting. Still unsure what you need to do? The information is in the bulletin board next to the business office, or you can come by room 411 for some information. Don't wait! Pictures are due by December 21st.
- Attention students and staff: The yearbook is still on sale for the lowest price of the year until the end of December. You can order your copy at the business office, or go to yearbookforever.com to order yours online. Don't delay. Prices go up in January!
- Seniors, are you interested in attending Grand Canyon University? Come to an application workshop Thursday during lunch in the Career Center. The GCU recruiter will be present to help with applications and answer any questions you may have.
- Congratulations to all the Saints that participated in the oxy-fuel cutting challenge. It was great to see everyone fired up about shop classes. The winners of the competition are: Gabriel Flores, Luis Cuevas, Josue Lopez, Karen Paniagua and Rodrigo Martinez. Please come to visit the welding shop to collect your prize.
- Congratulations to Robert Baisch, Eric Perez, and Mickey Lopez for taking first place in the Advanced Automotive engine-building contest at the Elective Fair!
- Join Project Teen Health Club today during lunch in room 222. Be part of a group of youth leaders aiming to make healthy change in their community. Bring a friend. See you there!
- Did you miss something in today's announcements? A copy of them can be found in both English and Spanish on our school newspaper's website: smhsbreeze.com. Make sure you check it out and see what's going on around campus
