Who: We have an awesome line up this year!! Singers in Spanish and English, dancers, along with our school band NO CLASS featuring our administration team and faculty members. We hope to see you there!
- Project Teen Health TODAY at Lunch in room 222. We will be designing our booth for Santa Maria's first Open streets ¡Calles Vivas! event. Join us in promoting better health and fun in your community! New students welcomed! See you there!
- Kudos go to our Key Club adviser Mrs. Lombardi-Hyder and students. We are thankful for your leadership and community service in helping others. Key Club members donate their time to our homeless shelters passing out food and other needed services. This week they are sponsoring the Blood Drive. Please make an appointment by emailing Mrs. Lombardi-Hyder or stopping by her room 355. Our Key Club focuses on doing services that help our community be a healthier better place. Occasionally, they celebrate their hard work by going on fun outings. Last year our club went to help decorate the floats for the Rose Parade in Pasadena. Thank you for all you do for our school and giving back to our community!

Santa Maria High School - Go, Saints!
