Parent-Teacher-Student Contract

This agreement outlines the roles and shared responsibilities that we, partners in education, will adhere to confirming that students at Stewart Street Elementary are warranted success through meaningful learning experiences.

As a teacher, I will:

- Provide a classroom atmosphere that is nurturing, safe, and conducive for learning.
- Facilitate instructional routines that are engaging, using lessons that will challenge students to use higher order thinking skills.
- Clearly communicate academic and behavioral expectations for student achievement.
- Support student’s individual needs academically, socially, behaviorally, and emotionally.
- Maintain open lines of communication with students and parents.
- Participate in professional development opportunities to support continuous improvements and enhancements of instruction.

As a student, I will:

- Come to class (whether it is in a virtual or brick and mortar learning environment) ready to learn and work diligently to complete all assignments, including homework.
- Ensure that I have taken care of my personal hygiene and grooming needs before class starts.
- Dress in appropriate attire before logging into the remote learning classroom.
- Bring in necessary supplies needed to accomplish tasks.
- Log into my remote learning class on time (9:00 a.m.) and stay on schedule with instructional routines.
- Follow school and class rules.
- Respect myself, my school, classmates, school staff.
- Share those concerns that are of my best interest with my teachers and my parents.
- Take responsibility for my actions at school and at home.

As a parent, I will:

- Ensure that my child attends school every day and is logged in on time (by 9:00 a.m.)
- Have my child dressed in appropriate attire and ensure that care of his or her personal hygiene and grooming needs before class starts.
- Become familiar with the school and classroom rules that my child must follow.
- Facilitate learning for my child in an atmosphere that is conducive to learning and free from distractions.
- Ensure that my child’s homework and other school projects are completed by their due dates.
- Commit to helping to maintain the equipment, (computer, books, and other resources), provided by the school in a neat and orderly fashion in order that students can complete all assignments.
- Contact my child’s teachers whenever I have a question or concern.
