TIPS FOR PARENTS: HOW TO MONITOR YOUR CHILD'S PROGRESS

Every parent wants the best for his or her child, especially when it comes to education. Whether your child has just started kindergarten or is beginning a new journey in high school, it is important to monitor your child's progress every step of the way to ensure he or she is well prepared for success. The tips below will help you monitor your child's progress in school.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Talk with your child daily about school.

Attend parent teacher conferences and parent events for math and literacy.

Check your child's grades online weekly through the Infinite Campus app.

Be aware of Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) results and Georgia Milestones End-of-Grade (EOG) Assessment results.

Keep in contact with your child's Teacher.

Use phone or email calendar reminders to monitor your child's progress.

October 23rd- 27th is Red Ribbon Week

Students at Tolbert Elementary School have the opportunity to participate in the special attire days listed below in order to promote the Drug Free message:

Monday – I “mustache” you not to do drugs. Wear Mustache

Tuesday – Choose to “lay” off drugs. Hawaiian Theme

Wednesday – “Love” yourself, stay away from drugs. Wear Red

Thursday – Don't be caught “sleeping”, say no to drugs. Pajama Day

Friday – Say “Boo” to Drugs. Costume Day (NO MASKS, FACE PAINT OR WEAPONS!)
