“It was the best of times, it was the worst of times.” -Charles Dickens

S. SHAW OUT!..

Ethan Surrette

I, Ethan Surrette, of occasionally-sound mind and plus-sized body, do hereby leave the following:

Rawley Buford: I leave you the ability to be the person you want to be, regardless of what everyone else thinks and says. Make the world your oyster, and know I have and always will have your back.

Nolan Medders: I leave you the ability to enjoy your last year here, unlike I have; I know it may sound like a cliché, but you're gonna miss this- I certainly did. I can say without a doubt that I am proud to call you my best friend and even, my brother. You've got a bright future ahead of you, and all the possibilities and support you need, so go take it, and never look back.

Luke Palmer: I leave you the ability to be wise beyond your years and to always remain compassionate and supportive to your friends and family; be the person who will make sure everyone else is okay, because everybody needs reassurance, and sometimes, it's the only thing to get people through the day.

Kameron Crowley: To you, I leave the promise that we all have our ups and downs, and you will always have friends; this year has taught me that the most difficult fights are won alongside others. Just remember that wolves fight as a pack, and I've got your six.

Evan Booth: I leave you the ability to understand that you don't have to do everything that your friends do to fit in.

Taylor Mitchell: I leave you the ability to see sunshine in even the darkest of days. You have made an impact on my life and helped me to understand that every one has their demons. Whether you choose to fight or run away, we've got your back.

Jashon Poe: I leave you the ability to do the exact opposite of what you have in mind.

Houston Anthony: Never forget your neighbor Carl; after all, he lives next door. And I really don't know any other people who teach driving school and have pink flamingos on their porch.

Lucy Tulipan

I, Lucy Tulipan, of a somewhat sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following:
