

AP Language and Composition

Teacher: Mrs. Paula Jacques

Summer Reading Assignment

**This assignment is due on August 30, 2017, regardless of which semester you are enrolled in English. Be prepared for an essay exam on the novel on the third day as well.****

1. You should plan to read the following book over the summer:
The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain (available at Barnes and Noble)
2. Please complete a dialectical journal while you read. Please see below instructions.
3. You will need to type up your dialectical journal and submit it in the drop box via the group Edmodo code.
4. Respond in an essay to the following prompt: Discuss the significance of Twain's use of satire in each of the following situations and rank the influence of each upon the reader: sentimentality and gullibility, the average man, romantic literature with its mournful subject matter in poetry and its ridiculous plots in novels, a code of honor that results in needless bloodshed, and religious dogma. Submit your essay in the drop box of the AP Language and Composition Summer Reading Group in Edmodo.

Dialectical Journal Instructions

Purpose: The term "Dialectic" means "the art or practice of arriving at the truth by using conversation involving question and answer." Think of your dialectical journal as a series of conversations with the texts we read during this course. The process is meant to help you develop a better understanding of the texts we read. Use your journal to incorporate textual ideas about theme, symbolism, setting, character, and conflict. You will find that it is a useful way to process what you're reading, gather textual evidence, and prepare yourself for group discussion.

Procedure: As you read, choose passages and/or quotations that stand out to you and record them in the left-hand column of a T-chart. Use the exact format as shown below: response label/page number/speaker

- You must have at least 3-5 quotes for each chapter
- In the right column, write your response to the text (ideas/insights, questions, reflections, and comments on each passage)
- Label your responses using the following:
  - Theme – explain how a passage/quote relates to a theme in the novel
  - Symbolism – explain the significance of the symbols within the novel
  - Setting – explain how the settings affect the novel or characters overall
  - Character - make a judgment about the character(s), their actions, or what the author is trying to say
  - Conflict – explain the conflicts within the novel
  - Other topics: tone, rhetorical question, mood, etc.

Passages from the text	Chapt.;Pg#s	Rhetorical Devices and their effect on the work
"The floating sheets of ice that continually pass us... [do not] dismay us." Theme   Letter 3/ Page 8/ Robert Walton	Letter 3; Pg 8	Walton informs his sister Margaret Saville of the vast and empty ice sheets that passed them every day exemplified the Romantic themes of mystery and the wild. The emptiness of the arctic also showed many Gothic themes of isolation and loneliness, which
