Dear Parents/Guardians,

As a parent of a student with a disability, your time and your efforts are valuable. We'd like to introduce you to a program we've created which will make the next few months or years much easier on you, and your child.

Successful Transitions is pleased to introduce a new project to parents, educators, department heads, and directors/coordinators across our state. Successful Transitions has partnered with the South Carolina Commission for the Blind (SCCB) to fulfill the Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act (WIOA) while specifically providing funding and training for Pre-Employment Transition Services (PRE-ETS) Careerboost is a federally funded Grant designed for individual or groups of VR eligible or potentially eligible students, who are between the ages of 13 and 21 across South Carolina, in either an in-school or after-school format:

Successful Transitions will be delivering the following services

- Self-Advocacy Training
- Work Readiness Workshops
- Work-Based Learning Experiences
 - Including:
 - Job Tours,
 - Job Shadowing,
 - Interviewing Skills,
 - and Internships
- Post-Secondary Education
 - Including:
 - College Research
 - Assistance with Applications
 - Scholarship Research
 - College Tours

Our program is designed to help your child succeed. Upon completion of our program, the student will have a set of valuable skills, and will know exactly how to use them in the future. Your child will be given more information on our project from his or her teacher or counselor, but if you should have any questions about our program and the goals we are trying to meet, please do not hesitate to contact our office at 803-960-9977, or email us directly at jbazer@careerboostsc.com.

Thank you for your time.

Jennifer Bazer
Successful Transitions Director
