2. Only the person who has legal custody of the child/children has the authority to make decisions regarding the child's/children's education.
3. If divorced parents share legal custody of the child/children, with written documentation provided the school, both parents must agree on decisions relating to matters of education and medical care.
4. Grandparents and foster parents still need approval from the child's/children's parents regarding educational decisions.
5. Legal custody of a child/children must be established before enrollment is completed.

- B. Foster parents must provide the school with legal papers that show they have legal custody and authority to make educational decisions for students enrolled.
- C. If a foster parent does not have sole legal custody, signed authorizations from both non- custodial parents and from the foster parents, must be provided for children who are enrolled.
- D. If a grandparent is merely a baby sitter and does not have legal custody, the school enrollment contract must be signed by both the parents and the grandparents.
- E. Enrollment will not be complete until permission to enroll the child/children is given, in writing, by the parent named in the official custody papers as having authority to make decisions regarding the child's/children's education.
- F. Any restrictions in the official custody papers, not in keeping with official school policy will negate enrollment. Restrictions such as after school pick up, free exercise of religious instruction, and standard of conduct.
- G. Written directions in the official custody papers regarding the parent to: (1) call in an emergency, if the child fails to attend school, or if there is a discipline problem; (2) receive school notices; and (3) access the student's records will be followed.
- H. If a non-custodial parent is unavailable or the whereabouts are unknown, the person with legal custody must provide a signed affidavit disclosing such details and give information about plans to sever the absent parent's right to legal custody.
