Students may check in for their first exam of the day, and they may check out of school after their last exam of the day if they have turned in the required paperwork. Students checking out after an exam are required to have turned in the correct paperwork, must leave campus immediately (or immediately after lunch if dining on campus), and may not return to campus to ride a bus or for any other purpose.

All students on campus must be in their assigned classes at all times. The only exception will be by the mutual agreement of the student's scheduled teacher and the teacher who requests to supervise a student, and should only happen in exceptional circumstances.
