

Internet Permission Contract

We are fortunate to have been equipped with a computer lab that has access to the Internet. It is our intention to use the computer and the Internet responsibly. Our system has been established to help students learn and to help them develop their computer skills.

Below are policies that will regulate our use of the Internet. These rules have been designed to keep our computer and classroom functioning at the highest of standards. In order to have access to the Internet, please read the following and sign below.

For safety reasons, when using the Internet:

1. Students will NOT access the Internet without the teacher's permission.
2. Personal information such as home address, parental information, or school name or location will not be given out without the permission of the teacher.
3. The teacher will immediately be notified if any inappropriate messages are received.
4. While at school, the Internet is not to be used to e-mail or receive any e-mails unless it is part of a class assignment.

The following activities are illegal and shall not be tolerated:

1. Gaining unauthorized access to any place that is not part of the assignment.
2. Disrupting any computer system.
3. Contributing to help spread electronic viruses.
4. Engaging in any illegal activity online.
5. Use obscene language and/or engage in personal or discriminatory attacks, or post false or misleading information about individuals or organizations.
6. Students will not bypass the protective measures that are in place to prevent access to Web sites that are inappropriate for school purposes.

Do not access, download, or distribute:

1. Any pornographic, obscene, or sexually explicit materials.
2. Inappropriate information or graphics.

These rules and principles must be adhered to and any violation of them will be met with zero tolerance.

- Students must abide by their signed contracts.
- The use of the computer is a privilege, not a right.
- If this contract is broken, the student's privilege will be revoked.

I have read the Internet Permission Contract above. By signing below, I fully agree with and understand the content of this contract. If I breach any rules, I understand my Internet and computer privilege will be revoked.
