Dear Parents:

The Dale County Board of Education strives to provide a certified teacher in every teaching position in the school system. Through a rigorous teacher selection and evaluation process coupled with professional development opportunities, the Dale County Schools goal is to offer an instructional program delivered by qualified teaching professionals.

Guidelines under the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 entitle parents of all students enrolled in Title I participating schools to request information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's teacher. These guidelines may be found under the "Parents Right to Know", Title I, Part A. Section 1111(h) (6) of the Act. Five schools in the Dale County School system are Title I participating schools: Ariton (K – 12), Midland City Elementary School, South Dale Middle School, Long Elementary School, and Newton School. You may request information about the professional qualifications of your child's teacher(s) by contacting Lamar Brooks, Associate Superintendent for the Dale County School System. Contact information is listed below. Information will be mailed to you or you may make arrangements to pick up the information at the district's office.

If you have any questions or comments concerning this letter, you may call me at the Dale County Board of Education. The number to the board is 334 - 774 – 2355.

Sincerely,

James L. Brooks
Associate Superintendent
