

STEP THREE – 11/13 homework

Writing Assignment: Using the quote or scene you discovered in class today, write a paragraph that addresses the counter to your argument, including an introductory statement, a counter claim, one piece of contextual evidence, and a conclusive sentence.

- A counter claim may look like this:
 - The example is true, but...
 - State the example and then provide reason(s) it is not relevant to your argument.
 - The example is true but not as significant as...
 - Acknowledge that the example is true but not as important as your argument.
 - The example is flawed because...
 - Point out the invalidity of the opposing argument.
