

Group Analysis: How do YOU see it?

Tell me about yourself (your role in the story):

	Macomber	Wilson	Margaret	The servants/gun-bearers	The lion
What is your opinion of each of the characters listed? Consider gender roles as you answer this question. Provide a quote that backs up your answer.

Group Analysis: How do YOU see it?

What do you think their opinion of you is? Provide a quote that backs up your answer. (provide pg and paragraph #)
Are you a person or being with POWER?
How is your power achieved? Does this have anything to do with your status as a man or a woman? Your race or wealth? Your place in the animal kingdom?
In what way is your power taken from you? Does this have anything to do with your status as a man or a woman? Your race or wealth? Your place in the animal kingdom?

Group Analysis: How do YOU see it?

Create a visual representation of how you see the world and the people in your life. Be creative! This can be abstract, literal, a collage, or a drawing/painting. The most important thing is that you represent how you feel about yourself and others.

Group Members:

Rubric

Questions are answered through thorough investigation of the text	/30
Responses are appropriate and evidence-based
Quotes are provided
Visual representation is creative and neat	/20
Colorful and shows effort
The character is clearly represented
Total	/50
