

Sixth Grade Summer Reading

Students need to choose one book from the following two series. (one book total for summer reading)

Penderwicks series by. Jeanne Birdsall

IFunny series by. James Patterson

When students return to school they will need to know the plot of their books, characters, and theme. They will have a test and write a summary on the book.

Places to get summer reading books...

Books A Million

Barnes & Noble

Local Library

Amazon

Students are not required to bring book to school in August, but if your child struggles with remembering details having the book in hand to review is helpful. They will not be able to use the book while taking the test or completing the writing assignment.
