CHRONIC ILLNESS NOTIFICATION 2013-2014

In accordance with the Administrative Code of Alabama and the attendance policies of the Midfield City Board of Education, a child is expected to attend school regularly. When in the case of truancy reported to the Attendance Officer, the student's records have been previously documented by medical authorities as a chronic illness, such documents will be given consideration by the Attendance Officer. It is the responsibility of the parent to document chronic illness by meeting with the principal and the school nurse to provide appropriate medical proof of chronic illness every school year.
