

Lesson Quiz 4-1

Socialization

DIRECTIONS: True/False In the blank, indicate whether the statement is true (T) or false (F).

- _____ 1. Unlike other animals, humans are already socialized when they are born.
- _____ 2. The emotional needs of human infants are as important as their physical needs.
- _____ 3. With socialization, an individual is unable to learn beliefs and values.
- _____ 4. Even children who have experienced extreme isolation can learn some degree of socialization.
- _____ 5. The process of socialization requires prolonged social contact with others.

DIRECTIONS: Multiple Choice Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- _____ 6. Socialization begins at birth and continues
- A. until age 12.
 - B. until age 21.
 - C. until middle age.
 - D. throughout life.
- _____ 7. Which of the following is an emotional need of human infants?
- A. food
 - B. control
 - C. affection
 - D. protection
- _____ 8. Which of the following best describes the results of Harry Harlow's research on rhesus monkeys?
- A. The monkeys nearly always stayed with the wire mother because it was the one with the food.
 - B. The monkeys starved to death because they stayed with the terrycloth-covered mother and did not go to the wire mother that had food.
 - C. The monkeys primarily stayed with the terrycloth-covered mother, only going to the wire monkey for food.
 - D. The monkeys showed no preference for one mother over the other.
- _____ 9. The case histories of Anna, Isabelle, and Genie showed
- A. how important socialization is to development.
 - B. the way that socialization may occur even in isolation.
 - C. the effects of prolonged and intensive human contact.
 - D. how development is independent of socialization.
- _____ 10. Socialization takes place through a process of cultural
- A. isolation.
 - B. diffusion.
 - C. transmission.
 - D. development.