

Lesson Quiz 4-2

Socialization

DIRECTIONS: Matching Match each item with the correct statement below.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| _____ 1. according to Mead, this is the part of the self that is spontaneous, unpredictable, and creative | A. imitation stage |
| _____ 2. the time around one-and-a-half years of age when a child starts mimicking the behavior of others | B. game stage |
| _____ 3. an image of yourself as having an identity unique from other people | C. self concept |
| _____ 4. according to Mead, the part of the self that is created through socialization | D. "I" |
| _____ 5. the time during which preschoolers begin to engage in sophisticated role taking | E. "me" |

DIRECTIONS: Multiple Choice Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- _____ 6. _____ holds that society exists because it is necessary to teach children to work together to create a stable society.
- | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| A. Functionalism | C. Symbolic interactionism |
| B. Conflict theory | D. Role-taking theory |
- _____ 7. Our self-concept
- | |
|--|
| A. allows us to have an image of ourselves that is separate from those around us. |
| B. has little to do with how others see us. |
| C. stays the same throughout our lives. |
| D. is something we are born with and has nothing to do with the ways others interact with us. |
- _____ 8. Which of the following is a concept that is important in symbolic interactionism?
- | |
|---|
| A. significant others |
| B. the importance of society norms |
| C. maintaining the status quo |
| D. the self-concept |
- _____ 9. Why is taking on a "role" important?
- | |
|---|
| A. It allows us to determine who our important family members are. |
| B. It allows us to view ourselves through someone else's eyes. |
| C. It teaches us skills that protect us later in life. |
| D. It prevents us from considering the thoughts of others. |
- _____ 10. A child learns how to behave within her family by watching how her parents judge her behavior and then judging herself accordingly. Charles Horton Cooley called this process
- | | |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| A. desocialization. | C. the play stage. |
| B. resocialization. | D. the looking-glass self. |