“Preparing Our Children Today for the Challenges of Tomorrow”

November 1, 2017

Dear Collins-Rhodes Families,

My name is Marshall Hunt and I am so excited to introduce myself as the new Principal of Collins-Rhodes Elementary School. It is an honor to have been selected to continue the work of Mrs. Coleman who has led this dynamic learning environment for the past 9 years. Her commitment to the Collins-Rhodes Elementary community has been invaluable and she will continue her excellent leadership at Chastang-Fournier School.

Over the past 15 years, I have worked as a teacher and administrator, but I consider my most important job to support your child to ensure they do their very best. I will spend a lot of time with your children, getting to know their personalities, learning styles, and interest. I will continue to celebrate their successes, small and large. I will also encourage them every day to let them know they are valued and have a special place in our school community. Not only am I excited to begin working with your children, I look forward to the work we will do together. I commit to working with you should your child need any help navigating any aspect of the school day.

There is a tribe in Africa called the Masai and it is considered to have the most feared and intelligent warriors. The traditional greeting that is passed between Masai warriors: "Kasserian Ingera," means, "And how are the children?"

The Masai, acknowledging the high value that they place on their children's well being, always give the traditional answer, "All the children are well." It will be my daily goal to ensure that "All the children are well" each day.

Once again, I am so thankful to have the opportunity to bring all that I have experienced and learned with me to Collins-Rhodes Elementary. I look forward to getting to know you and your children. I invite you to stop by and say hello. I look forward to meeting you soon!

Educationally Yours,

Marshall B. Hunt
