

"A Healthy Me is Drug Free!"

We will be celebrating Red Ribbon Week at John Will

October 24th, 28th-30th. We encourage every student to participate, however the following activities are OPTIONAL and ONLY during Red Ribbon Week.

Thursday, October 24th: Red Ribbon Week Kick Off!

- Students sign the Red Ribbon Pledge Cards.
- Students wear Red Ribbons provided by the school.
- Poster Contest: Students create a poster on 8 ½ x 11 paper centered on the theme, "A Healthy Me is Drug Free". One student will be selected Grades PreK-2 and one student from grades 3-5. All posters should be completed and turned in to Mrs. Mark by Wednesday, October 30, 2013. Winners will receive FREE chips for their snack for 2 days and Red Ribbon prizes.
- Door Decoration Contest: Teachers and Students will decorate classroom doors centered on the theme, "A Healthy Me is Drug Free." All doors should be completed by Wednesday, October 30, 2013. The winning teacher will receive a prize/gift provided by one of our school's Partners in Education.

Monday, October 28th: "We Are Banning Against Drugs"

- Faculty, staff and students wear band-aids to "ban" against drugs FOR THIS DAY ONLY!
- Students must provide their own band-aids and they are to be worn on your face, arms or legs. NO MORE than 2 on your face.

Tuesday, October 29th: "Don't Let Drugs Mix You Up"

- Faculty, staff and students wear mix matched socks and crazy hair FOR THIS DAY ONLY!
- Students receive bookmarks.

Wednesday, October 30th: "I'm TOO Bright for Drugs"

- Faculty, staff and students wear sunglasses FOR THIS DAY ONLY!
- Students receive stickers.