August 8, 2016

Welcome back to a new and exciting school year! This handbook includes the Greetings Faculty and Staff:

My name is Rashad B. Stallworth, and I am the new Principal at Mobile County Training School. It is my privilege and honor to join the MCTS Whippets community. I am looking forward to an exciting year of learning and growing with each of you.

My primary goal will be to ensure that each student is provided the highest quality of education possible in a safe and supportive learning environment. Working together as a team with you, I am committed to helping each student achieve their very best. Every student is valued and worthy of our best effort.

We will be working to enhance the academic culture of Mobile County Training School. Our focus will be the advancement of reading skills for each student, and we will be working to implement technology to multiple facets of our educational environment.

I hope each of you have enjoyed the summer, and I hope that you are looking forward to a great school year. The year will be busy, exciting, and hopefully very rewarding for each of you.

The first day for teachers is Monday, August 8, 2016. We will start the day at 8 a.m. sharp.

If you have any questions or concerns throughout the school year, feel free to contact me on my cell at (251) 206-9024 or via e-mail at rstallworth@mcpss.com.

Thank you and kind regards,

Rashad B. Stallworth
Mobile County Training School Principal

Mobile County Training School

School Vision

Our vision is to provide a quality education to all students by setting high expectations within a safe and positive environment.

MOTTO:

“BE GREAT”

Beliefs

1. Set High Expectations
2. All students learn, achieve, and succeed in different ways.
3. An environment conducive to learning will promote student learning.
4. A student's self-esteem is enhanced by positive relationships and mutual respect among and between students and staff.
5. Students learn best and make appropriate decisions when they are actively engaged in the learning process in a supportive and challenging environment.
6. Teachers, parents, and the community share the responsibility for the school's mission.
7. Challenging expectations increase student performance.
8. A student's self-esteem is enhanced by effort and appropriate opportunities to achieve.
9. Each student is a valued individual with unique physical, social, emotional, and intellectual needs.

Desired Results for Student Learning

1. Students will achieve mastery in all core academic areas and experience appropriate exploratory subjects that enhance the scholarly mission of the school.
2. Students will become proficient in using critical thinking and problem solving skills to enhance their ability to think for themselves and discover new learning.
3. Students will recognize and practice skills necessary for developing a healthy lifestyle.
4. Students will demonstrate essential organizational skills necessary to achieve mastery in academic and related areas.
5. Students will develop the ability to work cooperatively with others and demonstrate skills necessary for being responsible citizens in their community.
