

At Mobile County Training School, we have several programs for students. We have a counselor from Alta Pointe that is in-house two days a week. We also have mentors from Government Street Baptist Church, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Light of The Village, and other local ministers. Crittenton Youth Services and an organization called Push for Peace also mentors the students. We will also receive assistance from the Foley Center at Springhill College.