STUDENT CONDUCT

"If a child lives with encouragement, He learns confidence."

Group A Offenses

Group A: Disruptive behaviors include those student offenses that disrupt the orderly educational process in the classroom or anywhere else where the school has authority. Teachers must attempt to resolve Group A misconduct when it is appropriate before referring a student to the administrator for official disciplinary action. These interventions and responses may be implemented for violations of any Group A offenses within a school year.

First (1st) Offense

Classroom Interventions and Responses include:

- Teacher contacting parent/guardian by phone, email, or text message
- Teacher verbally correcting a student's misbehavior
- Student drafting a written apology for his behavior
- Conducting a conference between the teacher, student, and parent(s)

Student Support Team Interventions and Responses include:

- { TEACHER or SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR } notifying the parent/guardian about the student's misbehavior
- Conducting a conference between the student and community
- Student participating in a mentoring program
- Student being referred to a Problem Solving Team
- Student being referred to school-based health or mental health clinic (parent MUST be notified)
- Student performing service to the school

Second (2nd) Offense

Intensive Support Staff and Administrative Interventions and Responses may include:

- Changes to a student's schedule or class
- Teacher notifying parent \ guardian
- Student performing service to the school or community
- Student repaying any costs resulting from his or her misbehavior
- Detention
- Student participating in conflict resolution or peer mediation
- Teacher referring student to a school administrator

GLOSSARY	69-72

The school needs your help. Enrollment Information indicates you will read and discuss it with your child.

This code has been developed based on your child's school experience. The County Public School System will discuss this code at school events.

Parents/guardians have the responsibility to be involved in the education of their child. This code of conduct is a part of the weapons, controlled substances, and other rules of this Student Code of Conduct.

A parent or guardian's failure to sign this code of conduct for the student or the parent/guardian is a violation of the Code of Conduct and will not be excused.

The parent/guardian is legally responsible for the student's behavior under Section 16-28-12 (see detailed information on page 69).

§ 16-28-12 Person in loco parentis; non-compliance; local distribution. The parent/guardian shall report non-compliance to the school and shall vigorously enforce the code of conduct.
