

Division of Human Resources

Employee Handbook

March 2012

The intention of this handbook is to simply provide information. It does not constitute any part of any employment contract, nor does it supersede any law, board policy, or procedure. It should be used only as a guide.