Medical Detectives - E-Learning

PLEASE NOTE NO LATE PAPERS WILL BE ACCEPTED. DUE TUESDAY JANUARY 24TH OR BEFORE. PICK EITHER THE MEDICAL-RELATED ARTICLE OR THE MEDICAL-RELATED TELEVISION SHOW

---

Part A: Medical Detectives in the Media

1. Medical Detectives in the News:

Find an article in a newspaper or magazine (in print or online) that discusses Medical Detectives. You may not use an article/website that was used in class. Read the article and TYPE a two paragraph summary of the article. Attach the article with your summary or provide a link to the article.

Your summary should include the following: (20 points)
- Paragraph 1: Detailed summary of article content.
- Paragraph 2: Answer the following questions:
  - Why did you choose this article?
  - What areas of Medical Detectives are discussed in this article?
  - Why is the subject of the article important?
  - What are two things you learned from reading this article?

2. Medical Detectives on TV:

Watch a TV show that deals with Medical Detectives. TYPE a two paragraph summary of the show.

Your summary should include the following: (20 points)
- Paragraph 1: Answer the following questions:
  - What is the name of this show?
  - Why did you choose to watch and summarize this particular episode? Have you seen other episodes of this show?
  - What happened in this episode related specifically to Human Anatomy and Physiology? (include a brief summary of this episode)

- Paragraph 2: Answer the following questions:
  - Describe at least two characters from this show that have careers dealing with the fields of Medical Detectives
  - What are two things you learned about Medical Detectives from watching this TV show?