Dear Families:

We are excited to be focusing on Kindness in November. During our Kindness Challenge, students will be recognized by staff for showing acts of kindness towards one another and staff. When a student is seen demonstrating an act of kindness, he/she will be given a ticket and the ticket will be placed on the wall under their grade level. After the students have accumulated 1000 Acts of Kindness, an assembly will take place where an administrator kisses a pig!

Math Department Highlight

Our department highlight of the month is our Math Department, under the leadership of Mrs. Tawny Schultz. Below you will see highlights from each math teacher's class. They invite you to come into their classrooms and be a part of math exploration with their newly acquired Math Envision textbooks. They are excited and celebrating the growth they have already seen in our grade 6-8 students.

For the month of October:

Ms. Schmitter-6th Grade Math:

Through the use of GetMore Math, students have been practicing concepts that are aligned to their misunderstanding and needs. They work through different problems to earn points. Once a certain amount is earned, they are able to play different math games. Students are finding a high interest and excitement for this practice!

Mr. Manning-Math 6: We have just finished up Positive Rational Numbers and are moving into Integers and Rational Number. We are in the new textbooks full time now and students seem to be adjusting nicely. Once a week my class is breaking up in collaborative groups for re-teaching and enrichment. During this time, the students work on a project or activity together based on our objectives. This time has been very beneficial to all students. I am hoping to see an improvement in overall performance on formatives.

Ms. Camagos-6th Grade Math: We spent October working on Decimal Operations and The Number System. We used several collaborative strategies to build relationships among students and started using google classroom for assessment and integrated online resources for practice and collaborative works.

Ms. Larenio-7th grade: We have been working on Percent's. We completed the retake on Unit Test 2 and made connections with the notes taken. We started setting up google classroom for every class. We also started with the new book this month.

8th grade: We finished the Linear Relationship lessons. We did a computer activity, and the flip book regarding the types of slopes and ways in finding for slope. Students worked on the Study Guide before they did the Unit test.

Ms. Boldin: Unit 3: Linear Relationships

We have been working on slope, proportional and nonproportional relationships, similar triangles and writing slope in equations. We completed the Unit test and then began using the new textbooks.

Mrs. Schultz-Pre-Algebra: Moved through Topic 3 which had them working with Ratios and Proportions. We have now started our topic on percents.

Algebra completed the topic that involved linear equations. In the following topic they will apply their understanding of linear functions. As a whole, we have started Collaborative Study Groups. Students work together in groups to help further understanding on a lesson/question they are not understanding. These went AMAZING!! For it being their first time, students really utilized vocabulary and different questions to help students understand. No direct answers were given, rather students authentically worked through problems to solve for the answers.

Learn about Mr. Barnes:

I am looking to make an impact on our community at a younger age and helping the youth of our community to learn and to grow and to see the opportunities that are out there for them. If they will buckle down and work on their education, the world is at their fingertips.

I have lived and worked in the community of Page, Arizona since moving here in July of 2000. I came to the Page area from Flagstaff as a member of the Coconino County Sheriff's Office. I started working here in the then new Coconino County Jail's Page Holding Facility, as the first Sergeant here opening the new facility. I retired from a career in corrections with Coconino County after 23 years of service and have been living here in the community with my wife and four children.

We have enjoyed raising our children here in this community and living in this area full of fun recreational opportunities, which we have taken full advantage of, though my children would tell you we need to buy a boat.

After retiring from the Sheriff's Office, I tried my hand at politics, running as an Independent candidate for Page Justice of the Peace. Politics was not meant to be for me, and I settled back into a career as a Security Officer at the Glen Canyon Dam. After watching that contract fade away, I joined the good folks at Encompass Health Services, where I have been working as a crisis support specialist in the community. Though I was enjoying my job working at Encompass, I felt the urge to strive to make a difference in our youth and applied for the job of Dean of Students at the Page Middle School.

Though the job is full of twists and turns and new challenges to face every day, with the help and assistance of my co-workers and my genuine love of kids in general, I look forward to helping to shape and mold the minds of our future leaders. I look forward to working with the kids and their families every day to make Page Middle School a place of fun and learning, and a safe place to send our children to gain a valuable education to put to work for them as they make the right choices.

I am looking forward to providing the students here with some valuable life lessons and the guidance and direction they need to get us all on the same page and help us all to play nice together in the sand box. Correcting those that need correcting when necessary and helping each student to see the bright and successful future that lays in store for them as they are willing to work towards it.
