

BENJAMIN PAINE BSO MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is given as a loving testament to the passion and love of life embodied by Ben Paine who died July 10, 2006 while doing what he loved best, playing basketball. In a college paper, Ben wrote:

" I believe that you should never have to say I wish I did this or I could have done that...Nobody remembers the mishaps, but people definitely remember what they could have accomplished (had they tried)."

Generally, at least four scholarships of $500 - $1000 will be awarded: The largest ones will go to a graduating member of both the Righetti and Santa Maria High and to a graduating student athlete at large in each school. Lesser amounts will be awarded. Approximately $6500 in total awards is to be given.

Qualifications to apply:

- a) Must be a graduating senior
- b) G.P.A. of 2.5 or greater
- c) Must have participated in athletics at the high school senior level (if you were to participate and it was cancelled, that is okay)

Along with your completed application you will need the following:

Must write an essay up to 400 words on the topic “What is my Passion and how will it help me to grow and succeed?”

- a) Please include some event or story that illustrates your passion. Note that your “passion” doesn’t need to involve sports.
- b) High school transcript to verify GPA

Application packets can be emailed to you by Daniel Solis (dsolis@righetti.us) or Kimberly Washington (Kwashington@smjuhsd.org). Completed packets should be emailed to Ms. Washington or Mr. Solis or mail them to Ben Paine BSO Scholarship Fund, PO Box 3738, Pismo Beach CA 93448.
