

MSMHS FISH TALES

that are true from the desk of Dr. Spera

Week of January 27, 2014

Interact Club Donates Time and Money to those in Need

NEW LONDON, CT - This Saturday, Interact Club students and teacher advisors visited the New London Church of the City's Saturday Community Meal Program. The group of eight visited the program leader, Reverend Tom Hogsten and his volunteers to lend a hand and to deliver a check that will certainly help support their efforts.

In December 2013, the Interact Club raised $1250 in the Second Annual MSMHS Penny War fund raiser. On Saturday, Dr. Spera presented Rev. Hogsten and the New London Community Meal Program with a $1,000 check. These funds will be used to help support the Community Meal Program's costs for food and supplies.

FINANCIAL AID NIGHT - TUESDAY, JANUARY 28

After last week's cancellation, the MSMHS Financial Aid Night will be held this Tuesday, January 27th at 6:30 pm in the Great Hall.

A financial aid specialist from Connecticut College will be discussing federal (FAFSA) and state (FFAA) financial aid applications and procedures. The financial aid representative from Conn College will also be able to answer any questions regarding financial aid.

We strongly encourage all senior and junior parents to attend this informational program. Furthermore, for our sophomore and junior parents, it is never too early to plan!

WINTER FORMAL DANCE - FRIDAY, JANUARY 31st!

The Junior Class will be selling tickets to the Winter Formal on January 31st. Tickets for the Winter Formal will be sold in the morning and at lunches. Students looking to bring a guest must obtain a guest dance form from Ms. Alvarez in the main office. Forms must be submitted by the 2 pm on Wednesday, January 29th. Tickets are $10 a person.

Formal dress code is required for the evening event. Students must wear a tie, slacks, and dress shoes or a appropriate dress for the evening. No jeans or sneakers.
