

MSMHS FISH TALES

that are true from the desk of Dr. Spera

Week of December 23, 2014

Senior Tessa Capiello - MSMHS Student of the Month

Tessa Capiello, senior from New London, is one of the hardest working and beloved students at MSMHS.

GROTON, CT - Senior Tessa Capiello, New London, has certainly proved that effort creates ability. Tessa has worked incredibly hard over the past three years to improve her academic skills in the classroom. Moreover, Tessa has developed the skills to become an admired leader amongst her peers at MSMHS. For these reasons, Tessa Capiello is the MSMHS Student of the Month.

Tessa is involved in a multitude of clubs and teams at MSMHS. She is the Vice President of the Senior Class and member of the Unity Club, Yearbook Club, Student School Improvement Committee, and the Fencing Team. This week Tessa was voted by her peers and named captain of the MSMHS Fencing Team for which she is a two-year varsity letter winner. She is a high honor roll student who is enrolled in a rigorous course load including AP Biology, AP Human Geography, Honors Psychology, and is interning with MSMHS School Psychologist, Ms. Sklar where she leads the Girls Group and asks as a mentor to several students.

This coming Fall, Tessa plans on attending the University of Connecticut at Avery Point where she will pursue her studies in psychology and social work. On behalf of the MSMHS Faculty, congratulations to Tessa for her outstanding spirit, leadership, and dedication.

Boys Fencing Wins Opener Against Morgan

GROTON, CT - The Boys Varsity Fencing Team won their home opener against The Morgan School, 8-1.

The MSMHS Varsity Fencing Team have their sites set on the state championship this year. Last year, in their first varsity season, the boys fencing team finished 12th in the state; only four spots out of the qualifying 8th place finish needed for states.

Juniors Quinten Arsenault, Adam Leitzinger, and Ethan Koproski finished opening night with two bagels (term for a 5-0 shut-out) and a 3-0, 2-1, 3-0 record respectively.

The next varsity fencing meet is on January 8, 2015 against Norwich Free Academy in Norwich, CT at 6:30 pm.
