

MSMHS FISH TALES

that are true from the desk of Dr. Spera

Week of January 4, 2016

NEW DATE! PROM MOVED TO FRIDAY, MAY 20 AT WATER'S EDGE!

GROTON, CT - Sometimes the stars align and a handshake agreement works. The MSMHS Prom originally scheduled for Thursday, May 19th will now be on Friday, May 20th for the same cost!

Today, Dr. Spera contacted the event planner and reminded her about the handshake agreement they made last May. The agreement was that MSMHS could reserve the Friday (5-20) after the original scheduled date if there was no wedding planned on that date as of January 2016. To the surprise of all, Waters Edge agreed to move the date for no cost! Known as one of the top wedding locations in CT, the price of the ballroom on Friday and Saturday is 400% more than the MSMHS prom.

Get your tuxedos and dresses ready juniors and seniors for MSMHS PROM on FRIDAY, MAY 20th!!

MSMHS Gymnastics?

Well not really, but we would have a great team if we had CIAC athletics at MSMHS. This year, five MSMHS students are competing at the varsity level in gymnastics for three different schools: Waterford, East Lyme, and Old Lyme. The uniqueness of these three schools is that they compete and practice together with a shared coach, MSMHS parent, Coach Kim Detuzzi.

Last night, the MSMHS squad hosted their first meet of the season against Windham and NFA at ABC Gymnastics in East Lyme. MSMHS freshman, Britney Detuzzi, finished first place overall in her first varsity meet with 34.3 points. Britney was also first in vault (8.8), beam (8.8), and floor (8.6). MSMHS junior, Elisabeth Heikkinen finished third overall in the meet with 30.9 points. The next home meet is on January 22nd at 3:30 pm in East Lyme.
