THE FISH BOWL II: MSMHS' Version of the Homecoming Football Game

GROTON, CT - The Annual Homecoming Weekend is only a month away. In addition to a homecoming dance, most high schools invite alumni to their Homecoming Football Game. Some may think that since MSMHS does not have a football or fall sport team that this would not be possible. However, those who know the MSMHS Family well are fully aware that anything is possible!

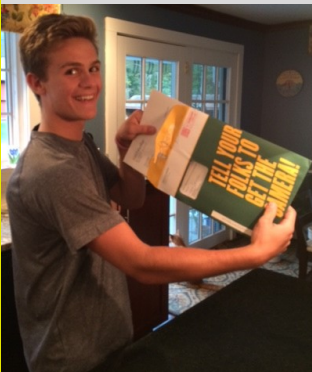

The Second Annual Fish Bowl combines the ideas of a homecoming football game with a 'Powderpuff' football game that most high schools play in the fall. On Friday, November 20th at 3 pm, the Senior girls will battle the Junior girls for the Fish Bowl title. Last year, the current Seniors won as Juniors

In addition to the students, each class drafted a coach and two female teachers for the game. The juniors selected Coach 'Aquaman' Litvinoff (0-1) as their head coach along with the Dean of Students, Mrs. Campbell and math teacher, Ms. Andruskiewicz. The seniors drafted last year's winning Coach Campbell (1-0) as their head coach along with Mrs. Turano and last year's MVP, Mrs. Hardison. The Fish Bowl is a flag football that will take place on the upper field at MSMHS at 3 pm. The Fish Bowl is an eight on eight game which allows for only one female faculty member to be on the field along with the seven other students at a time. For the past two weeks, both teams have been practicing with their designated coaches. The head referee for the game will be Dr. Spera with a special guest lines judge. It is sure to be a great time. Best of luck to both teams!

D'Addario Gets 1st Acceptance for Class of 2016

EAST HADDAM, CT - Student Council President and Senior Class Treasurer, Austin D'Addario, received some great news last week with an acceptance to Siena College located in Loudonville, NY.

Austin was the recipient of the Siena College Book Award at last June's MSMHS Award Ceremony. In addition to his acceptance to Siena, Austin was awarded the Presidential Scholarship which is the college's highest academic scholarship awarded to a select few who apply. The $72,000 scholarship is the initial offer that Siena presented to Austin.

Along with his classmates, Austin will be applying to other schools such as Cornell, Dartmouth, Vanderbilt, and North Carolina before making his final decision. Congrats to Austin!!
