SUNY Maritime College Rear Admiral to Speak at Graduation

GROTON, CT - The 2015 MSMHS graduation just got more exciting with the guest speaker acceptance from the President of SUNY Maritime College, Rear Admiral - Dr. Michael Alfultis. Dr. Alfultis accepted the invitation from Student Council President, Kate Green and Class President, Montana Woods. It is truly a privilege and honor to have the Rear Admiral at the Making H15tory graduation on June 17th at 6 pm on the campus of UConn Avery Point.

Rear Admiral Alfultis is the former UConn Avery Point Director who was instrumental in obtaining all of the ECE courses offered at MSMHS and the incredible opportunity of having the annual MSMHS Commencement Ceremony on the UConn Avery Point campus. Dr. Alfultis is a huge supporter of MSMHS and participates as a judge each year at the PTO Spelling Bee.

Dr. Alfultis was appointed to President and Rear Admiral position last July at SUNY Maritime College. This Fall, Dr. Alfultis will welcome graduating MSMHS senior Jordan Tyrol. Furthermore, the Rear Admiral is interested in offering a SUNY Maritime College navigation course at MSMHS for college credit; similar to UConn ECE.

Eang Receives Eugene Atwood Award

On May 1st, Priscilla Eang became eligible for the Eugene Atwood Award. Priscilla will enter the scholarship pool of students across Southeastern Connecticut to compete for the $4,000 grand prize. Priscilla is guaranteed the semi-finalist prize of $1,000.

Applicants from 19 high schools were selected for the scholarship that was established in 1916 by Mr. Eugene Atwood of Stonington, CT. The purpose of the scholarship is to aid deserving, industrious young people who are making an honest effort to accomplish the best results in life. Last year, Montana Woods was a recipient of the $1,000 scholarship.

Priscilla is a member of the National Honor Society who holds leadership positions as the Chief of Staff for the Junior Class and was the past 9th and 10th grade Class President. She has a 4.3 GPA and also plays Varsity Volleyball for Fitch. Priscilla's combination of academics, leadership, community service, and desire to do give her maximum effort at all times was recognized by the scholarship committee. Best of luck!
