So much depends upon a small spider web

Sprinkled with dew
A small spider sits waiting for its next meal

So much depends upon shelter

People sitting on steps Shivering to the cold wind, snow rain.
Begging people for money to have shelter.

So much depends upon rain the rain with its wet drops

It helps the flowers Grow
the rain keeps nature and the greens moist and the makes rainbows.

by Joshua, 4th grade

So much depends upon the sparkling snowflakes

that fall from the beautiful sky,
ending up melting
on the ground.

So much depends upon
learning

I think of book, paper, words,
I think of learning my math facts

I think of specials because we learn new things

I think of learning new words

I think of learning new languages

I think of learning new games

So much depends upon flowers

Blue, green, pink
And white,
So pretty,
Light and water helps
The flower
Come Alive.
