

Poets' Pride

April 29, 2013

Glorious Chocolate

Chocolate, O Glorious Chocolate,
Sweet and delicious,
Yummy and dark,
You bring me joy and happiness.
You are so delicious and glorious.
Don't leave me, for you are my savior food.

Glorious Chocolate, when you crunch between my teeth, you are hard,
But when you get fully in my mouth, you start to dissolve.
As you slowly flatten on my tongue,
and I suck you down
I immediately want more.

Chocolate, O Glorious Chocolate,
When I eat you, I feel up and ready to go.
Glorious Chocolate, you make me feel happy, proud, lovely, gorgeous, and loud.

Chocolate, O Glorious Chocolate,
you are my savior food.

Delanie 3rd grade

Love

Love gives me a warm
Feeling inside, like a cuddly
Kitten warming your feet
On a cold, rainy day. Love Makes me happy in such A way that I take that Anger and put it away. Love Makes me think about kisses
And hugs, and not exactly insects
And bugs.

Antoinette 3rd grade

The Slow Slinking Cat

The slow slinking cat
Creeps through the fall leaves
Looking for its prey
In the swishing trees.
With ease the cat sneaks
On chirpy birdies and snatches the baby bird out of the nest.

Ben 3rd grade