Rocky Hill Parent Advisory Group (RHPAG)

Serving families of Rocky Hill students with IEPs, 504s, and other needs.

Our next meeting is Monday, February 26th from 6:30 to 8:00 at the Rocky Hill Community Center in activity room #2. We hope to see you there.

Meeting topic:

Standardized testing:
What to expect, accommodations your child may need, and alternate assessments

Presenter: Abe Krisst – CT State Dept. of Education Performance Office

The RHPAG is a group of active parents with a vested interest in the continuous improvement of the education of their children. The RHPAG is committed to helping children of all abilities grow and thrive in our community and to enhancing the role of parents and caregivers with a vested interest in special education.

Important things to know about RHPAG:

- Monthly meetings are held on the 4th Monday of the month at the Rocky Hill Community Center in activity room #2.
- A group of parent school reps meet with the Rocky Hill Board of Education to discuss issues/concerns and offer suggestions/ideas for improvement. Parents have the opportunity to speak with the school representatives at every meeting.
- At each monthly meeting parents will learn something to benefit you and/or your child from available community resources, to IEP and PPT trainings, to preparing for the future, and more.
- Parent advisors are available to talk with and assist you with your specific situation.

Please come to our meetings to lend your support and your voice as we to work together for the educational and social growth of our children.
