

Debra W. Roberts, President

2019 Dr. Jessie V. Furlow Scholarship

Scholarship Amount - $500.00 - $1,000.00

Dr. Jessie V. Furlow, MD
1949 - 2006

Dr. Jessie V. Furlow was born January 19, 1949 in Memphis, Tennessee to Mrs. Georgia Carr and Mr. Jessie Carr. Her father died before she was born. Her mother later remarried and she was adopted by her stepfather Mr. Hosea Furlow, Jr. Dr. Furlow was the eldest of four children.

Dr. Furlow had a true passion for providing quality healthcare to people – especially the people of Gadsden, and as a practicing physician at the Gadsden Medical Center, she provided quality medical care to patients throughout the Gadsden community. She received her Bachelor's degree from Lane College in 1971 and her M.D. from the University of Rochester in 1975.

Among her many contributions to the medical field, Dr. Furlow served as the vice-chair of the Florida Commission on Minority Health, was on the Board for Shanks High School's health clinic, and as a member of Florida State University's Board of Trustees, she provided early assistance in launching Florida State University's College of Medicine. She served as Lead Provider with Gadsden Medical Center, which is now The Dr. Jessie Furlow Medical Center. Dr. Furlow was the founding President of the National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. - Gadsden Chapter, a charitable organization dedicated to improving the lives of Black families through support of the arts, culture, health, education, and human service programs.

On June 24, 2006, at the age of 57, Dr. Jessie V. Furlow died, leaving behind a legacy of dedication to the citizens of Gadsden County and the medical field.

SCHOLARSHIP PURPOSE - The purpose of the Dr. Jessie V. Furlow Scholarship, in honor of the Gadsden Chapter's founding President, Dr. Jessie V. Furlow, MD, is to recognize and honor Gadsden County students who have demonstrated academic excellence, concern for their community and the family, and a desire to continue their education.
