How to Be Involved in Child's Education

- Talk to your child about their school day.
- Monitor your child's school work.
- Establish supportive household routines.
- Volunteer in your child's school.
- Make parent-teacher conferences and school meetings a priority.
- Read to and with your kids.
- Check your child's backpack for important information from the school.

Reading Tips:

Read to your child.
 Read with your child.
 Discuss new words.

Make Reading Fun!!!

Choices: Children will read more when they enjoy what they are reading.

Availability: Make sure that you have many books available for your child. Visit our local library.

Creativity: After reading a book, have your child creatively express what they have read. Children will have fun while demonstrating their comprehension.
