One of our standards the 3rd nine weeks is counting to 100 by 10's and 1's. We practice this skill everyday. Here are some fun counting videos to use at home for practice.

Sight Words

I will be testing sight words this Thursday, February 16th. Once your child has read lists 1-8, I will test them on all 80 words. Your child must be able to read all 80 in completely random order to move onto 1st grade sight words.

Thursday will be Renaissance Pajama Day!

Your child may wear their pajamas with a $1.00 donation to support our Renaissance program.
