Attendance Matters
...every school day counts!

As the school year winds down, continue to make sure that your child is in class every day. Schedule family vacations and events outside of school hours, and try to do the same for doctor and dental appointments. You'll show him/her that school is important, and she/he's likely to do better on their final report card.

1st Grade Spotlight

Our fantastic first graders are working hard learning their sigh words and word attack skills. We are building up to reading books on our own and taking AR tests! In math, we are learning about place value, money, and working on our math fluency fact skills. Also, we are learning about narrative and informational writing. One project we have really enjoyed lately is learning how to graph using jelly beans! We can't wait to start our next project building shapes!
We are so proud of all the progress our first graders have made!

On the STEAM scene
Rhonda Duncan, STEAM Teacher

It's Marvelous March Madness in STEAM class. Marvelous because March brings us the wonderful spring season. Grass growing, flowers blooming, and the trees are getting their leaves back. I'm hoping to experiment with planting seeds and doing a little digging in the dirt with the kids. March "madness" for all the basketball fans who spend hours glued to the TV watching the tournaments in hopes that their team will make it to the final four. (I'm a Vols fan myself).
Happy Spring everyone!!
Mrs. Duncan

Join us March 19, 2019, at 6:00 for a Brand New Family STEAM Night, presented by Pure Genius. We will explore magnetic poles, make magnets levitate, make a magic trick using magnetic force, test various chemicals for chemical reactions, use lights to make a series and parallel circuit, decode messages with orbies, explore sounds, build your name or initials with Legos and meet and greet EMMET, and then "Holy Cow" touch bones, eyeballs, real hoofs (with gloves of course) and weigh a real heart.
