Dear HMS Book Club Member,

We are excited to announce that Julian Vaca, the author of our book selection, The Surge, will be visiting the school on Friday, December 5th. If you have not already purchased your copy, get it now in the media center for $14.00. He can sign it for you when he is here. You could also purchase the book at area bookstores.

To prepare for his visit, I'd like as many as possible to blog on the author's site and/or think of some questions to ask him concerning the book, The Surge. You could even ask his questions about being a writer. To do this, it is important, that you follow the instructions below carefully. Remember that what you write on this is shared and others can read your comment, so check your grammar and spelling and be polite in your questions.
