What to do if your Teen is having problems at school?

- Talk with your teen
- Have your teen try an work out the problem
- Meet with your child's teacher
- Discuss solutions with your child's counselor
- Talk with a school administrator

*Did you know...
Your child/children can see a Medical Professional at their School via the Telemedicine Cart? Once their appointment is complete, their medicine is called into your pharmacy. NO more waiting rooms when your child doesn't feel well.*

Attendance

Matters!

In accordance with the Georgia law, students are required to attend school. Any student subject to compulsory attendance laws who has five or more unexcused absences shall be considered truant and subject to system discipline policies and procedures.

Parent Have The Right:

- To know the professional qualifications of teachers
- To know the school improvement status of the school. Currently no schools in the district are on any of the state's needs improvement lists
- To know the level of the student achievement on the state tests
- To know if your child has been assigned to a teacher who is not highly qualified for a minimum of four consecutive weeks
- To be involved in the planning and implementation of the school parent involvement program
