Please initial that you understand the following:

- Attendance is required every day during summer school in order to complete the session. Absences are not excused. Tardies are considered absences. Students must arrive to class on time. Transportation is not provided by the school.
- Behavior issues are not tolerated during summer school. Any behavior problems will result in removal from summer school, loss of credit, and no refund. This includes dress code / cell phone violations.
- It is my responsibility to register for the correct class and to make sure that I have met requirements.
- Credit will only be given to students fulfilling academic and attendance requirements (and if required, participation in the end of course assessment on the date listed above).

We agree to the above policies and procedures (both parent and student must sign)
