Independent Reading Resources

Grades PreK-8

Epic! Books: Epic School (www.getepic.com) is a digital reading platform that is currently free to students during hours of the regular school day. All students enrolled in Echols County Virtual Learning will be on Mrs. Hamm's classroom roster. You can access this platform through the web or download the app, then enter the class code. Mrs. Hamm's Epic! Class Code: epp1644

South Georgia Regional Libraries: Our local public library will be a great resource to our off-campus students. You can visit the Allen Statenville Library to check out and request print books or access the SGRL eBook platforms, including eRead Kids (southga.axis360.baker-taylor.com), using your PINES library card. To register for a free library card, visit the SGRL website (<https://sgrl.org>) or visit our local library.

Grades 9-12

Destiny Discover: Students have access to our school's library eBooks through our school's Destiny Discover website (<https://search.follettsoftware.com/metasearch/ui/34883>). Students will log in using their school network log in information. Students can also download the Destiny Discover App. Please contact Mrs. Hamm if you have any questions.

South Georgia Regional Libraries: Using your free PINES library card, young adult readers can visit the Allen Statenville Library to check out and request print books or access the SGRL eBook platform, RBDigital (southgareg.rbdigital.com). To register for a free library card, visit the SGRL website (<https://sgrl.org>) or visit our local Allen Statenville library.

Online Learning

The Little Loud Library: (<https://sites.google.com/view/littleloudlibrary>) is ECS Media Center's Virtual Library Website. Here students will have access to month-by-month resources, recommended reading lists, virtual Storytime videos, our school's book club, and more.

Accelerated Reader Program: Virtual learning students will have access to the Accelerated Reader testing system at home. Tests will only be available during school hours. Please monitor students as they take tests. Students should only test on books they have read. Accelerated Reader can only be accessed through this link: <https://global-zone20.renaissance-go.com/welcomeportal/56891> or the Little Loud Library virtual classrooms.
