LSGT By-law review

- Secretary sent By-Laws to team members. Members will review and address changes next meeting.

Protocol for submitting LSGT minutes to Board of Education. See Agenda.

M. Murray

- $1850 to spend on parent involvement fund. Title I funds, so it must be FOR parents; resources to teach math, science, etc., at home. Can also be used to train parents. Maybe used for 1-to-1 parent training.
- Leigh-Ann Hunt is the Vanguard teacher. She is being trained by Chuck Langston and Selena Chastain.
- How to reach parents who still have not signed the release for the iPads.

Grubb

- School safety: Up to date with drills.
- School facility updates: new carpet in media center and band room.
- New softball/baseball fields
- New hitting cage
- New lights in the gym
- New LED basketball scoreboards; independently controlled
- Gym floors waxed
- New football scoreboard
- Fall sports done
- Basketball and wrestling are about to begin.
- Academic team finished off an undefeated season.
- November drill will be a severe weather drill month.

Salmon

- Focus on instruction; weekly meetings; P.D. on strategies

Stutts

- SOM this Friday
- Working with Ms. Hunt to get bulletin board up in the cafeteria.
- Next week is Red Ribbon Week.

Sexton

- Halloween dance is next Friday

Clance

- Families without basic internet access at home. Maybe the School Board can reach out to Comcast or AT&T or whomever about providing a reduced rate for internet at home.

Sexton – maybe provide an opportunity for students who do not have internet at school to stay after school to work on internet-based assignments.
Will go present this to the board.

Next meeting is November 15th.

Motion to adjourn by Rodriguez. Seconded by Roger Murray. All in favor.

- E) Protocol for Submitting Local School Governance Team Minutes to the Board of Education for Review

At the end of the document containing the minutes for each Local School Governance Team (LSGT) meeting, create a section labeled "Questions for the Board of Education" In this section, list any questions or considerations the LSGT would like the Board to review. If there are none, indicate such in this section.

Submit APPROVED minutes monthly to Sharon Seabolt for review by the Board of Education.

If items are listed in this section, someone from the LSGT should be present at the Board of Education meeting following the date the minutes are submitted. The purpose of this representation is to answer any questions members of the Board of Education may have or provide clarification, if asked. This is not an open forum for discussion, and anyone who wishes to address the Board openly must follow existing procedures for public participation at Board of Education meetings.

Questions regarding when items will be on the Board agenda should be addressed to Sharon Seabolt, Board of Education secretary.
