Research shows that students who have parents involved in their child's school are more likely to excel in school activities and succeed at higher levels academically than those whose parents were less involved. The Georgia DOE's Title I Parent Involvement Engagement includes parents, schools, families, and communities working together to create meaningful partnerships that can only lead to increased student achievement, beginning in elementary and on into the college years.

Gordon County Schools believes in inviting parents to take a role in their child's education. This can be accomplished in many ways:

- ⇒ Emails
- ⇒ Infinite Campus – Parent Portal
- ⇒ Remind 101
- ⇒ School Dojo
- ⇒ Parent/Teacher Communication & Conferences
- ⇒ PTO & PTO sponsored events
- ⇒ Review & Provide Input as to the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, Plans & Compacts, etc.
- ⇒ School Websites
- ⇒ Webinars & Workshops
- ⇒ Volunteering
- ⇒ Serve on School Committees

The Parent Resource Center provides:

- ◆ School & Community Resources.
- ◆ Internet Access – parents can use to gain information on their child's grades, attendance, and other helpful resources for academic success.
- ◆ Curriculum & Testing Information.

Please read and review Gordon County Schools' Student Handbook with your child. An in-the-know parent and their child are already a step or two ahead of the game!
