

What is the Move On When Ready Program(MOWR)?

(Previously known as Dual Enrollment)

Earn High school and College Credit while in High School

The Move on When Ready (MOWR) program allows 9th-12th grade students to take college classes while in high school (at no cost to the high school student) to earn college credit plus high school.

Move on When Ready was signed into law in March 2015 to help students get a “jump start” on postsecondary education, an advantage for students who want to get a head start on a college degree with tuition savings. Students who participate in a dual enrollment program are more likely to go to college and get a college degree.
