9. New Business

A. School Improvement Plan

The school improvement plan is now condensed into a one page document that addresses the beliefs of the school and long range goals. The better seeking team drafted this document over the summer and the key actions were made with a 3 year timeline for maintaining and accomplishing these goals.

These goals are student centered with integration of subject areas to maximize instruction. Teachers are provided the opportunity to collaborate weekly and monthly. STEM is ongoing and opportunities are provided for continued growth through visits from other schools, community based projects, and competitions. . Three areas were addressed outside of the key actions

A. Strengths

Our instructional framework lends itself to quality instruction and student growth. PBIS is our schoolwide behavior plan that promotes consistency and accountability for all students. Through collaboration among our staff and

B. Opportunities for growth

We seek to have increased student performance in the areas of ELA, with focus on reading and responding to text.

C. Meeting time for the following month will be held at 4:15 January 24. We will discuss the budget and have a combined Parent Action Team report. The agenda for the March 7 meeting will deal with end of year wrap up.
