

Midway Elementary School

Battle of the Books Contract

All parties agree that academic success is the product of a cooperative effort. Battle of the Books is a rigorous reading competition. To ensure that Midway Elementary School and the Battle of the Books competitors will benefit from this union, each party has the following responsibilities:

19 March 2013

The student agrees to:

1. Attend each meeting and practice.
2. Put his or her best effort into reading and re-reading all ten books.
3. Maintain the Student Responsibilities Checklist.
4. Obey all rules of competition both at home and at school.
5. Come prepared with questions to the practices.
6. Understand that students earn the right to be on the team through reading all books and having a positive attitude.

Parents/Guardians agree to:

1. Spend 15 minutes per day reading/questioning/monitoring their child about the Battle of the Books selections.
2. Monitor their child's reading and comprehension of each book by checking the Student Responsibilities Checklist.
3. Maintain a reading routine with their child.
4. Ensure their child is at practice and prepared and then promptly pick him or her up at 4:00.
5. Volunteer time or services to assist with snacks and drinks, or being a supporter of the competition.

As advisors, the teachers agree to:

1. Provide a safe, comfortable environment for students to learn and have fun.
2. Model appropriate competitive attitude.
3. Enforce school and competition rules consistently.
4. Provide students with clear and concise expectations.
5. Work to make learning and competition an enjoyable experience.
